THE RECTOR'S REFLECTIONS

Dear Friends,

If you read the December Vestry Highlights in this issue of the Communicant, you will see that we have exceeded our stewardship goal for 2024! We have a total of 124 pledges, 19 of which are new, for a pledged amount of $519,385. Our goal was $514,725. Never, in all my years in parish ministry, has a church exceeded a stewardship goal like this and ours was an audacious goal.

But even more important than the dollars pledged is the number of people who participated. To have 19 new pledges in one year is staggering. To have 124 pledges is mindboggling. To have 62 people raise their pledge is incredible. There is a story here about the resilience and generosity of Christ Church as we continue to emerge from the challenge of the pandemic.

Christ Church grew in ways other than stewardship in 2023. The energy in our worship services is joyful. On Sunday evenings when we have Lego Church and Youth Group or Youth Group and Compline, we may serve as many as 40 people for supper. We can make 300 peanut butter and jelly sandwiches in an hour because so many people show up to be part of this ministry. The music from the choir is going to blow the roof off the church one of these days. The Christmas pageant had 39 children and youth involved. Between Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, over 350 people worshipped at one of our services, numbers we have not seen since 2019, and we don't have a count on the number of people who came through for Restrooms for Runners on Christmas Eve morning, but it was substantial.

There are so many ways to be involved in ministries at Christ Church and every single ministry could use your participation to keep this momentum going. From all of the Sunday morning ministries whether ushers or coffee hour hosts and everything in between, to Christian formation whether helping with Sunday School or making meals for Youth Group and Lego Church, to outreach and making peanut butter and jelly sandwiches or building houses for Habitat, to helping in the office with projects like making welcome bags and "stuffing" bulletins, there is a place for you in the ministries of Christ Church and you are needed.

Everything we do at Christ Church bears witness to God's love. May our joy, our energy, our generosity, and our commitment continue to be that love in the world.

Blessings,

Charlotte

WORDS AND WISDOM BOOK DISCUSSION

January 16 at 8:00 p.m. on Zoom

Women of Christ Church and First Presbyterian are invited to join Sarah Bhatia monthly for a book discussion. We will meet on the third Tuesday of each month, via zoom, and discuss a book we have spent the month reading.

For the month of January, we will join together for discussion of The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie by Muriel Spark. At the staid Marcia Blaine School for Girls, in Edinburgh, Scotland, teacher extraordinaire Miss Jean Brodie is unmistakably, and outspokenly, in her prime. Determined to instill in them independence, passion, and ambition, Miss Brodie advises her girls, "Safety does not come first. Goodness, Truth, and Beauty come first. Follow me." And they do. But one of them will betray her. Email Sarah to sign up.

Mario Buchanan
Director of Music and Organist
mario.buchanan@christchurchudson.org

Greetings!

I want to take a moment to wholeheartedly thank everyone involved in the music program at Christ Church. The Young Choristers have continued to reach higher and higher in their musicianship, maturity, and singing. They have tackled some difficult pieces, including some pieces in Latin! Their presence is a great joy to see week after week. I have continued to be proud of the work these kids accomplish from when we started the program five years ago.

The Adult Choir is hard at work preparing for every Sunday and special services. Every Sunday they come prepared, ready to enliven our worship. This isn't just magic, it takes many hours of individual practice and rehearsals on Thursday nights. This was seen at our splendid Advent Lessons and Carols Service. The choir did a spectacular job with what was a very demanding but very rewarding service. We had some visitors who expressed how blown away they were with the service. For that one hour service, there were countless hours of practicing. I am so proud of their hard work and dedication. As your Director of Music, being at Christ Church is a blessing every day. Christ Church can be proud of their music program. If you are looking for a New Years resolution, thank a choir member. Their hard work enlivens our worship every week and that is something we can beam with pride!

All my best,

Mario

P.S.

There is no Compline service in January since I will be in Sicily!

Christ Church 2024 Vestry Candidates

This year's Vestry Candidates are:

Sallie Bear, Theresa Edwards, Malcom Robbie

Each candidate was asked to answer the following questions. Their responses are below.

- * What excites you about our life together at Christ Church?
- * What are your current ministries at Christ Church?
- * What gifts do you bring to the leadership of Christ Church?
- * What do you believe are the challenges Christ Church faces and how can you help us meet those challenges?

What excites you about our life together at Christ Church?

During the seven years we lived in Wisconsin before our move to Hudson last fall, we lived two hours away from an Episcopal church. We worshipped at Lutheran and Presbyterian churches, but we sorely missed the Episcopal church. I am thrilled that we can attend an Episcopal church in our hometown, and our son can attend Sunday school. I am impressed and encouraged by the amount of outreach our church does, and I am in love with the music! I am also excited about the children's educational opportunities at Christ Church. Walter attends Sunday school, and we attend monthly Lego Church. We also had fun at VBS over the summer.

Theresa Edwards

What are your current ministries or involvements?

We started attending Christ Church in the fall of 2022. I have spent the past year getting to know our church and exploring different activities. I helped with VBS over the summer, and I sat in with the choir for a bit this fall. Now that we are more settled in our home and two of our three children are off to college, I find that I am ready to become more involved in the church.

What gifts do you bring to the leadership of Christ Church?

Before staying home to raise our three children I enjoyed a career in human resources. Over the years I have helped organize several cross-country relocations, volunteered in classrooms, taught Sunday school, and sung in a church choir. These experiences have taught me how to navigate new communities and help acclimate our children too. I am a people person and enjoy collaborating with others. I enjoy helping others and I am not afraid to ask questions and learn new things.

What do you believe are the challenges Christ Church faces and how can you help meet those challenges?

As church attendance in the country continues to decline, especially after the pandemic, I feel this will be an ongoing challenge for Christ Church. It is important to continue our mission of being a welcoming community of faith. I have attended churches that have had no formal Christian education and it was a great detriment in welcoming and retaining families. I hope that through my service on the Vestry we can continue to offer programming for our youth, provide outreach for our community and meet the needs of the parish as they evolve.

What excites you about our life together at Christ Church?

The rhythm of the liturgy; The fabulous music; Our shared faith; Our support for Charlotte; The kids; My friends; The great work we do for our own and for others

Sallie Bear

What are your current ministries?

Worship assistant; Leader of the service at Laurel Lake
Several outreach projects and on the outreach committee
Vacation Bible School volunteer; office volunteer

What gifts do you bring to the leadership of Christ Church?

- Life long commitment to the Episcopal Church
- Interest in the development of church resources
- Promotion of the ongoing interpersonal relationships that are vital to the success of the church community

What do you believe are the challenges Christ Church faces and how can you help meet those challenges?

- Long term financial health of the church...keep the focus on estate planning efforts
- Continued activities and projects of interest that are supported by the congregation...check in with participants for their input
- Keep the light on the children which can lead to an expanded youth group....plan off site events

What excites you about our life together at Christ Church?

"Life" is a good word choice for Christ Church. The life of our ministries, fellowship, and communities. The opportunity to work with Sarah and Courtney in our children's youth education, the artistic flower arranging and so much more.

Malcolm Robbie

What are your current ministries or involvements?

Presently I have been supporting the children's Christian education, Eucharistic ministry at 8:00, and the Flower guild. I also have deep skills with moving heavy objects and dealing with stinky things (A standing joke I tell Charlotte and Kathy).

What gifts do you bring to the leadership of Christ Church?

I have spent years on vestry at my previous church and have had to deal with some very difficult situations. They have been handled with sincere love, discipline, and compassion. I think I'm a good person to know in tough times. I'm like our church- loving and hard to kill. As for the nuts and bolts of supporting the leadership and operations of a church I have had the privilege of...

- Leading Building and grounds
- Successfully Chaired the endowments investment committee at my previous church.
- Teaching Sunday school
- Supported church audits for the Diocese, Flower guild, Usher. Host of other activities as needed.

What do you believe are the challenges Christ Church faces and how can you help meet those challenges?

Growth- being the place young and old my find a space for spiritual growth. We must go to where the pain is in our communities and help heal. Work with our ministries, retire the ones that we have out-grown, mend the one still viable, and start new one where needed.

Christ Church 2024 Convention Delegate Candidates

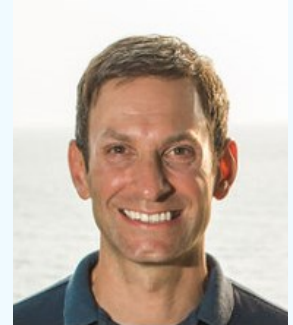

This year's Convention Delegate Candidates are:
James Boazzo, Judy Brookhart, Greg Daniels

Why would you like to serve as a delegate to Diocesan Convention from Christ Church?

I am eager and honored to serve as a delegate from Christ Church to actively participate in the Diocesan Convention, representing the views and values of our congregation. This is an opportunity that will allow me to engage in the democratic process of decision-making within the Episcopal community, contributing to the overall well-being and growth of our church.

What do you believe is the importance of this ministry?

This ministry holds immense importance as it serves as a platform for collaborative decision-making within the broader Episcopal community. By bringing together representatives from various congregations, the Diocesan Convention fosters unity, encourages open dialogue, and allows for the exchange of diverse perspectives. This plays a crucial role in shaping the future of our Episcopal Church, ensuring it remains relevant, inclusive, and responsive to the needs of its members.

James Boazzo

Why would you like to serve as a delegate to Diocesan Convention from Christ Church?

I thought little about diocesan matters, except for the occasional wonderful visit to Trinity Cathedral, until I attended the installation of our new bishop. It was a very moving experience, and caused me to think about our diocese, and specifically Christ Church Episcopal's relationship to it. That thinking was enhanced by being on the Vestry, and seeing the connectedness. It is living out the Bible verse that truly "We are the body of Christ."

What do you believe is the importance of this ministry?

Continuing to think about what it means to be part of the "body of Christ"... Just as a body has many parts, big and small, all significant, Christ Church is an essential part of the body of the diocese. We give, and we receive. We have a new bishop whom we support, and she supports us. We would be diminished as a church if we did not have this shared relationship. And I love to think that in a very small way, by being a delegate to the Convention, I have a role representing all of your voices.

Judy Brookhart

Why would you like to serve as a delegate to Diocesan Convention from Christ Church?

I have served on the Diocesan Standing Committee and the Bishop Search Committee and would like to continue to be active in the Diocese as a representative of Christ Church Hudson. I believe my understanding of both the Diocese and Christ Church Hudson will allow me to represent our parish effectively.

What do you believe is the importance of this ministry?

It is important for our parish to provide the Diocese with a lay person's perspective and continue our history of being active and connected with the Diocese.
