Take a moment to stretch, relax and destress with a new FREE Mindful Movement class on Mondays at 9:30 am beginning November 7th in Parish Hall through December 5th or 12th. With the cold days approaching and the busyness of holidays upon us, Kristin Keller, LSW and I wanted to offer a wellness opportunity good for body and mind! We are delighted to have Chris Rigby as our instructor. Chris has 30 years of experience as a registered teacher with Yoga Alliance and is a Mindfulness Based Stress Reduction Instructor through the University of Massachusetts Medical Center. She will be teaching us a very gentle form of stretching using yoga/ mindful movement that incorporates a medical model of effective techniques. Participants are asked to wear comfortable clothing and to bring a blanket and yoga mat if you have one. I have a few mats that will be available for use. For this class, participants will need to be able to get up and down from the floor. No prior experience is necessary. Take time for yourself and join us on Mondays!

Here are a few more reasons on the benefits of Mindful Movement from the University of Minnesota. *I hope you come give it a try!

How can I benefit?

<http://www.takingcharge.csh.umn.edu/explore-healing-practices/mindful-movement>

Mindful movement is an effective way to reduce stress and its physical consequences.

In addition, there are specific physical benefits associated with each of these mindful movement practices. Research shows yoga, for example, has health benefits including increased strength and flexibility, better balance and coordination, improved reaction times, better lung function, heightened cardiovascular conditioning, and weight loss.

Psychological benefits of practice include relaxation, greater equanimity, better concentration, and improved mood.

Scientific studies have found yoga as a useful adjunct to the care of such conditions as asthma, arthritis, carpal tunnel syndrome, multiple sclerosis, and heart disease.

BRIDGES TO CARE: A program of Laurel Lake Community Outreach

A Note from Charlotte

Dear Friends,

“We are thankful” has been the theme of our stewardship campaign this year, and each week we have heard parishioners talk about what they are thankful for at Christ Church. Time and again we have heard our fellow parishioners give thanks for this faithful community in which they either raised their families or are raising families. Since each speaker was limited to one sentence, we were not able to hear all the stories about raising children at Christ Church, but the message is clear: Christ Church is a great place to raise a family.

Our challenge as individuals and as a church is to tell those stories, whether we raised our family in this church or another, or have not raised a family of our own but have been part of the raising of other families here. I look out at the congregation on Sunday mornings and see many intergenerational relationships among members of different families. What makes raising children at Christ Church special, whether they are our own children or those of fellow parishioners?

This is a very important question to be able to answer as Christianity is increasingly seen as irrelevant in our society. The recent data on The Episcopal Church shows that 74% of Episcopal churches have an average Sunday attendance of 100 people or less. Only 4% of Episcopal churches have an average attendance over 300. Over the last 5 years, Sunday attendance is down 12% across the Episcopal Church and over the last 10 years, attendance is down 26%. On the good news side, 24% of Episcopal Churches have increased in membership over the last 5 years.

At Christ Church, you have been very clear that we want to be among the growing churches. Our demographic in Hudson certainly supports growth. But in order to grow, we have to be able to tell our story and talk about the impact this church has had on our lives. No one is looking for more places to support with their time, talent, or treasure. What people are looking for is a way to make meaning in their lives, a place that will help them instill lasting values in their children, and a place that does not cast judgement on them or their loved ones.

We are thankful at Christ Church and this has been a wonderful season of sharing our gratitude with each other. The task ahead is to find ways to express that gratitude for all the community to hear.

Blessings,
Charlotte

All Saints Sunday November 6

On All Saints Day, we remember those who have gone before us and modeled the Christian faith and life. On All Saints Day, we sing some of the greatest hymns of the church (in your rector's humble opinion) and light candles as we pray with and for those "we love but see no longer" (in the words of the Book of Common Prayer).

Join us for a joyful, poignant, and meaningful All Saints celebration!

Christ the King Sunday Sunday, November 20

Christ the King Sunday is the last Sunday before Advent begins. Since Advent begins a new liturgical year, Christ the King is a liturgical New Year's Eve of sorts. For us as Christ Church, Christ the King can be our patronal feast day the same way that the Feast of St. James or St. Luke or St. Francis is the patronal feast day for churches by one of those names. Christ the King is for us a day to see how we measure up as disciples of the King who came not to be served, but to serve and to give his life that all may live.

Join us on November 20 as we think about what it means to carry the name "Christ Church."

Called to the Diaconate

Christ calls us all on the pilgrimage with Him. Yet 20 years ago I was called to a particular order in our church and ordained to serve as a deacon in the Diocese of Ohio. It's been quite a ride! The peculiar ministry of the deacon is to take the love of Christ into the world and to bring the needs, hopes and concerns of the people out there back to those faithful gathered within her walls. Thus ever calling the church to open her doors and to minister not simply to one another but to open our eyes and hearts and reach out with compassion to those who know not the grace of God and the freedom offered from the bondage of sin. The specifics of all this are not so straight forward. For instance, in 1996 when I was ordained I was assigned by Bishop Grew to Church of Our Saviour in the West Hill/Highland Square neighborhood just off Market Street near downtown Akron. I had weathered some storms in my own life and I'd worked as a nurse on the Oncology floor at Akron General Hospital. It was the height of the AIDS crisis in the Gay community and I reasoned that I probably was being called to minister to that population as there were several gay men in the congregation and many more out in that part of town. God had other plans it seemed for the very first thing I was invited to attend when I began there was a meeting of concerned neighbors at the Community Center. It was a fiery affair. The neighborhood all around the church had deteriorated. West Hill had a bad reputation then for drugs, crime and prostitution. Many single family homes built in the 20's had been bought by speculators and converted to small apartments run by absentee landlords with the resultant property value decline. Home owners were furious and they decided to do something about it. I listened as the rhetoric ramped up finally culminating in the statement that, "If we just get rid of all these blacks everything will be good here again." I was shocked and thought, "There has to be a better solution and the church needs to be part of it." Breaking down barriers seemed the most important requirement in that neighborhood and over the years we did. God's call was not what I expected at all. It asked, like so many of Jesus' teachings to His disciples, me to set aside old assumptions and to see through new eyes and to bring others along with me. Quite humbling.

Now, that I'm semi-retired and my hair has turned from brown to gray I find there is a new call for me to serve here with others as an extension of our Christ Church community at Laurel Lake. God leads me on. Thanks for your support and prayers through the years!

Your fellow pilgrim,
Gretchen Green

Outreach Ministry ~ Family Promise

Family Promise of Summit County (previously known as Interfaith Hospitality Network) is "a consolidation of faith congregations caring for families in need of shelter, meals, and compassionate assistance that leads them to secure a stable home environment." Homeless families make up 40% of all homeless people, but there are no shelters organized to keep families intact during their homelessness. Typically, men end up in men's shelters while women and young children go to women's shelters, placing an additional stress on a family already facing a difficult situation.

Family Promise works with host churches which provide food and overnight shelter to families who have been accepted into its program. During their time in the program, the families are assisted by professional social workers who guide them on a path to employment, if needed, and housing. This work is done in the Family Center in Akron, a space that provides shower and laundry facilities, a nursery and kitchen, a kennel for pets, and telephones and computers to aid in the search for jobs and housing.

For the past ten years, many members of our parish have volunteered their time to help families sponsored by Family Promise. Our neighbor, the First Congregational Church of Hudson, is a host church to these families, providing services several times a year for one week at a time. We support their efforts. The services include transportation, meals, lodging, fellowship, and homework assistance.

Charlotte, our rector, recently told a story of a family she came to know while working with the Interfaith Hospitality Network at her previous parish. Parents told their young children that they were actually on vacation while they stayed at the host churches. They didn't want their children to ever know a time of homelessness. The families that have been served in Hudson have been similarly cared for, welcomed, and loved.

Only an hour or two of volunteer time during a host week can make a difference in the lives of the homeless people we serve. And we only have to go next door to do this! Please call or e-mail Pam Zuhl (330-650-5754 or zuhlfamily@aol.com) if you are interested in volunteering or for more information.

Pioneer, Innovator, Forerunner

These are a few of the adjectives that might describe someone who is among the first and is helping create a whole new program in conjunction with the Bexley-Seabury Federation and the Diocese of Ohio.

We are very happy to welcome Allie as her Community of Formation!

Alexandra, or Allie for short, has been thinking of a vocation or career in ministry since she was baptized in High School. Though she was not raised in the Episcopal Church, or any faith tradition, her family had tried to different denominations and in High School a life-long friend invited her to a Youth Group program at her church. She was instantly drawn to and fell in love with this community of faith and people who cared for one another as family. In College she began to actively contemplate her calling to ministry and it has been a constant nagging at her mind. Since graduation she has been volunteering in different areas of her home parish and since February of 2016 has been fast-tracking her way towards this calling.

Discernment with the Episcopal church is a very involved process where the people are asked to affirm a person's call to the priesthood. Allie is part of a brand new program with Bexley-Seabury Federation where the courses are primarily online, with periodic immersive weekends with classmates and professors in Chicago. This program is brand new and is a learning experience for the students, professors, and the different sponsoring diocese, which is why it is currently an invitation only program. The Bishop and Percy Grant have put a lot of faith in the students from Ohio this year, and have created an amazing support network for them. One aspect of that support network will be this Community of Formation, a parish which will allow Allie to grow in faith and community as she studies and learns. Over the course of her three years with Bexley-Seabury she will be able to bring what she is learning to the parish, and the parish community will allow for her to learn and grow beyond the walls of the school.

Bob "Chub" Russell '48 was a two-sport athlete at Miami from 1942-44, earning two letters in football and one in basketball. A two-year starting quarterback on the gridiron, Russell earned United Press All-Ohio honors in 1943 as Miami went on to an Ohio College Co-Championship. He was a captain for the football team in 1943, which posted a 7-2-1 mark. At a time when the forward pass was evolving the game of football, Russell was considered one of the best forward passers in the country and was being courted by teams in the National Football League. Russell's collegiate career was interrupted by World War II and a severe injury upon his return to Miami in 1946 cut his athletic career short.

The Christ Church Choir joyfully leads congregational singing and provides an anthem each Sunday, from Sept. through May.
We meet on Thursday evenings from 7:00 - 8:30 and again on Sunday mornings at 9:45, prior to the 10:30 service.

Our talented and humorous director, Charlie Carr, makes the practices fly by. He understands that, as a volunteer choir, we must miss occasional rehearsals for travel and work or family duties. For that reason, our anthems are learned over several weeks of practice.

October Vestry Meeting Highlights

Vestry met on Tuesday, October 25 at 6:15 PM.

The meeting opened with a prayer and short bible study led the Rev. Charlotte Reed.

Reverend Reed stressed the need for vestry to let the ministries and committees focus on the day-to-day functions of the parish and keep vestry focused on the long-term goals of the parish and the strategy to achieve these goals. To help in achieving this objective, vestry has moved most of the regular reports to being submitted in written form (the Consent Agenda) with no/minimal discussion. This leaves time to focus on the long-term goals and discuss only those items that need specific approval.

Reverend Reed presented everyone with a copy of the "Episcopal Domestic Fast Facts Trend: 2011-2015". This report covers the entire US Episcopal Church and shows Membership; Average Sunday Attendance; and numerous similar statistics. The numbers show a significant and steady decline, which is probably typical of most mainline Christian denominations.

We then spent some time discussing how we might reverse this trend here at Christ Church in Hudson. Numerous thoughts were brought up and this will certainly be a continuing discussion at future vestry meetings.

The Stewardship Campaign was discussed. Results to-date were presented and ideas were discussed about how to increase the submission of pledges.

We discussed and planned for the creation of a committee to draft a "Safe Church Policy" for Christ Church.

There was brief discussion about a Ministry Fair and the initial plans for it.

We discussed the need for a Building Committee and a Grounds Committee and potential people to chair and/or be members of these committees.

Gabe Lefebvre and Lou Young updated vestry about problems with the columns at the front of Beebe House. Lou and Gabe are working to locate someone to make the required repairs and will keep vestry updated about progress and the financial needs for this project.
